Specialist Training & Employment Programme

Who can use step?

Step is a programme for refugees who have come to the UK via the Vulnerable Persons Relocation Scheme (VPRS) or the Vulnerable Children's Relocation Scheme (VCRS) and live in Bradford, Craven, Kirklees, Calderdale or Wakefield.

We will help you use your skills, knowledge and experience to find jobs in the UK.

How can we help?

- ◆ We will look at your qualifications and how they compare to qualifications in the UK
- ◆ We will check if you need to do more training, or whether you should volunteer, or do a work placement before looking for a job

You will get

- ◆ Regular meetings with your step worker
- ◆ A personal plan designed to help you find work
- ◆ Courses to help you improve your skills and qualifications
- ◆ Extra English (ESOL) classes
- ◆ Help to find volunteer and work placements
- ◆ A CV and references
- ◆ Help to apply for jobs and support after you find a job
